OUR COMPANY

Tiger Petro Ltd was founded in Los Angeles, California in 2002. The company was started as a division of Tiger Financial, Inc. We have grown as a global fuel organization because of our sincere commitment, dedication and hard work which ensures that we are able to satisfy our customers with high quality products & services. We have a qualified team to handle each and every department to make our products & service stand out in the market place with multifaceted development programs. We have access to a large customer base for our products & services. We will not compromise on our quality, pricing and timely delivery. The quality we provide our customers and our pricing is unbeatable. Also we ensure that we always deliver our products on time. As an organization we continue to work hard so that we can grow and serve our customers and also to become a financially strong company.

Tiger Petro is one of the primary sources for reliable importers and exporters of Petroleum products from all over the globe and the US. Products available include D6, EN590 10/ppm, Jet Fuel (JP54/JA1), Crude Oil and other Energy Commodities. We work in close cooperation with reputable and reliable suppliers who can deliver fuel products at competitive prices simply because we work with the production source directly.

Our firm provides creative distribution solutions and delivers premium products for International Institutions. We are a new standard in the export of petroleum products. Our commitment is to maintain the highest ethical standard in our business relationship with our partners that will add value to our clients and suppliers.

Through our network of international oil contacts, Tiger Petro has become a positive force for the sales of petroleum products and services around the world.

Tiger Petro is positioned to grow in the sales of petroleum's products, investment, commodities and ship management for businesses worldwide. The company's first operations began offering financial services to the international trade clients, petroleum trading commodities and precious metals. Today we have a wealth of advisory services from our seasoned staff.

The main role of Tiger Petro is to be a trustworthy, responsible, and competitive partner that provides its clients with high-quality products in an ethic way and with the highest efficiency possible. Thanks to its multidisciplinary managers and privileged partners, our company benefits from a worldwide network that allows us to be present and active in a large number of markets and activities.

Our team of principals and advisors represent the ideal mix of multi-disciplines in the Commodities international market with petroleum products & the Maritime industry consulting firm that has over 20 combined years of experience, International import & export sales, service performance, marketing, financial management and consulting. Our executive staff is committed to pursue its activities in compliance with the strictest regulations of International commerce chamber and also to the long-term protection of the human and natural environment.

Another key issue is the transportation and delivery of goods in commerce. Our logistical know-how permits us to arrange for the most efficient and economical transportation of goods. We can ensure the appropriate physical distribution of goods to and from virtually any ASWP point on the globe.

Capital, a venture that enabled him to collaborate with fellow entrepreneurs across various sectors, including finance, commodities, media, hospitality, health and wellness, as well as through his film production company, Pure Media Studio.

His clients and relationships have included Coca-Cola, MTV, World Cup Soccer, the Olympics, and AVP. As an executive with XL Video—one of the world’s largest daylight video screen companies—he integrated their video screens and production capabilities in partnership with NASCAR and Speedway Motorsports Inc., where he is credited with creating the first closed-circuit outdoor television network at racetracks.

A TED Talk speaker, author, and philanthropist, he believes that who you are, not what you do, is what truly makes a difference in the world. His book, Humility Branding, published by Beverly Hills Publishing—a full-service publishing, marketing, and media company where he now serves as Managing Partner—explores why humility is the key characteristic of inspiring leadership and lasting happiness. Recognized worldwide as The Branding Thought Leader™, he shares his branding expertise and explains why becoming a brand is the most rewarding business approach of all.

Mr. Epstein is recognized by his contemporaries as a “hands on” strategist and leader. In addition to the business community, he utilizes these talents in the non-profit world as a board member of several non-profit organizations. His mother was his true role model and stressed the importance of giving back. It became his passion to improve the lives of children in a variety of areas and lay the groundwork for them to have a better overall environment. His passion is to work with fellow entrepreneurs and unconditionally inspire greatness through the power of humility and integrity to make this world a better place. A graduate with a degree in business administration from Long Beach State University, he continues to impact the lives of college students as well as corporate executives.

As Director of Global Business Development, Mr. Epstein works directly with the President of Tiger Petro and global executives to leverage his relationships, expand the client base, and elevate the brand across international markets.
